2Gether4Victims & INVICTUS Final Conference: Practical Information for Participants

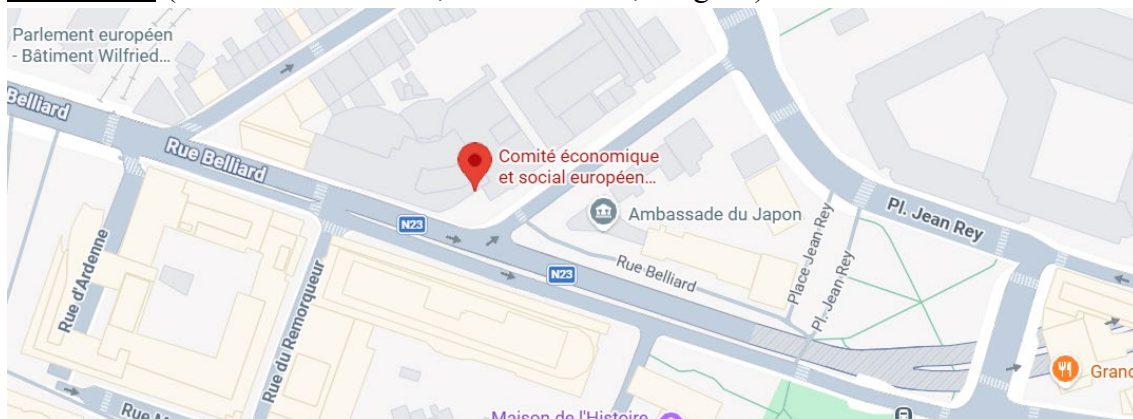

1. About the event

The final project conference will take place between 28 and 29 October 2026, following the proposed schedule:

- 28 October: full day conference
- 29 October: half day (morning) conference

The event will take place in Brussels at 2 different locations.

First day's activities will take place at the premises of the European Economic and Social Committee (Rue Belliard 99/101, 1040 Brussels, Belgium).

Second day's activities will take place at the premises of the KBR Royal Library of Belgium (Mont des Arts 28, 1000 Brussels, Belgium).

2. Travel arrangements

The following airports provide a convenient connection with Brussels city centre:

- a. Brussels Airport (BRU), approx. 15km from the city
 - By local bus: to get from the airport to the city centre, use Line 12. Purchase the Airport2City ticket for €7,90 by tapping your card at the bus or for €8,40 by purchasing a paper ticket from the machine. Please check which stop is most suitable to reach your accommodation – Schuman (connection to metro 1 and 5), Maelbeek, and Luxembourg are located in the European Quarter. Trone (connection to metro 2 and 6) is located closer to the city centre.
 - By train: to get from the airport to stations North, Central, South, or the European Quarter, use the train services located at level –1 at the airport. You can purchase the ticket in advance online or at the machine directly at the station. The tickets cost approx. €11.
 - By taxi: an Uber or a local taxi will cost approx. €35-€40, depending on the exact destination in Brussels.
- b. Brussels Charleroi (CRL), approx. 60km from the city
 - By shuttle bus: to get from the airport to the city, use the Flibco shuttle services. The buses run every 20 minutes and cost approx. €17-€20. The final stop is at the Brussels South station, from where you can connect by metro and tram.

3. Accommodation

Generally, it is recommended to choose a hotel in the European Quarter (nearby Schuman, Parc Leopold, Luxembourg station). From there, it will be very easy to reach the event's location.

Some other comfortable locations may include hotels in the city centre (nearby Grand Place, Sablon or along Avenue Louise). While these addresses will be a bit further from the event's location, they are well-connected by public transport and are located nearby popular tourist attractions.

Hotels/accommodation that are further than the above-mentioned may not be as comfortable location-wise. Generally, it is also advised to avoid accommodation nearby the North and South stations. Please do not hesitate to inquire about accommodation in any specific area that has not been mentioned.

Some recommendations of hotels include:

- Thon Hotel EU
- Martin's Hotel EU
- Radisson RED Brussels
- Thon Hotel Bristol Stephanie

4. Public transport

To move around the city, there are many public transport options available including metro, tram, and bus. Public transport is provided by the STIB/MIVB company. A single ticket (1 hour, connections allowed) costs €2,70, a pass for 10 journeys costs €18,90, and a 1-day ticket costs €9,50. Tickets can be purchased online via website or app, by tapping your card when entering the metro or in the tram/bus, or at the ticket machine. Paper tickets from the machine cost slightly more than the online options.

Day 1

The location of the first day (EESC, Rue Belliard 99/101, 1040 Brussels) is within walking distance from public transport stops such as the Schuman metro station and bus stops at Parc Leopold and Luxembourg station. If you plan to commute by bus, please make sure to consider delays due to increased traffic, especially in the mornings.

Day 2

The location of the second day (KBR, Mont des Arts 28, 1000 Brussels, Belgium) is within walking distance from public transport stops such as the bus and metro station Gare Centrale and tram stops Palais and Royale. If you plan to commute by bus, please make sure to consider delays due to increased traffic, especially in the mornings.

5. Communication
